Cagney Stars in Canada Air Yarn

"Captains of the Clouds," brilliant technicolor epic of the air, with James Cagney in the starring role, has been booked into the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne where it starts tonight. Brenda Marshall and Dennis Morgan head the featured cast which includes Alan Hale, George Tobias, Reginald Gardner and Reginald Denny, as well as many officers of the Royal Canadian Air Force, with whose cooperation the picture was filmed.

Made on location in Canada, under the direction of Michael Curtiz, master of the outdoor action picture, "Captains of the Clouds" has the superb scenic background of one of the most picturesque localities in the Western hemisphere.

Played against this magnificent backdrop, is the action-packed and inspiring story of Canada's heroes of the air in arms against the Axis. It is the story of some men who came out of the bush country, the lakes and forests of Northern Canada, to fly against the Luftwaffe for the Royal Canadian Air Force.

FIRST WESTERN ICE STAR . . . A new star is born in the person of lovely Donna Atwood, Los Angeles girl, who is one of the stars of the Ice-Capades of 1942 which opens at the Pan-Pacific tonight for a limited run. Miss Atwood is the first western skater to gain prominence in the professional figure skating world.

Housing Officials Due in Torrance Friday for Parley

ing has been virtually halted, the only money available for such work are Federal funds, Whyte pointed out.

"The Los Angeles Housing Authority can sponsor projects outside city limits. Allocation of defense housing projects totaling 10,000 units will be made in this area within the next few days—if we don't welcome them, they'll go someplace else," Whyte said. "We must face the fact that we're going to need some sort of quarters very soon for about 6,000 men. The government will provide them with quarters, such as barracks or trailer camps if no other housing is available."

"Other communities are going after such building and getting it. We need action to steer the WPA to Torrance and if not right in our city, then at least close to our industries. A housing project is better than army-type barracks."

a reclamation center on the Gila River Indian reservation in Arizona was contained in plans announced this week by the San Francisco regional office of the War Relocation Authority. Construction of the relocation center, located near Sacaton, about 80 miles southeast of Phoenix, will start immediately under direction of the U. S. Army Engineers.

Under lease agreement with the Indian Service the War Relocation Authority will operate more than 7,000 acres of irrigated land in the reservation on which Japanese farmers will produce large quantities of vegetables for the government's food for freedom program. Construction by the Army Engineers on a 1,600 acre reception center to accommodate 10,000 Japanese began Sunday on the Tule Lake Reclamation Project in northern California. The project should be ready for occupancy within 30 days.

Second J. P. in Township Meets County Approval

Retention of the second justice of the peace in Inglewood township, a rapidly growing area due to the influx of defense workers, was voted this week by the board of supervisors on motion of Supervisor Oscar Hauge.

The supervisors also acceded to the requests of a committee from Glendale and Burbank that a second justice be retained in the Glendale justice court, which also is growing rapidly due to the large Lockheed and Vega airplane plants in Burbank.

Opposition from Supervisor John Anson Ford, voted on the proposal to retain two justices in the Inglewood, Glendale and Pasadena townships when the matter was brought up last week, failed to knock out the two-justice proposal this week.

However, the supervisors voted their chief administrative officer to make a survey to determine the actual work load of the various justice courts in the county.

Boy Loses Glasses; Offers Reward

Six-year-old Ronald Turner is "in bad" with his mother, Mrs. Bobby Turner, secretary to City Clerk A. V. Bartlett, and he doesn't like it. But there's nothing he can do about it because he can't remember where he left his glasses when he took them off while playing yesterday near 318th st. and Arlington ave.

They are just a small pair but Ronald needs them very much. He's even offered a reward—two pennies and his best foreign stamp—to which his mother has added some extra cash, for the return of his "specs" to Mrs. Turner at the city hall.

MUTE YOUTH NABBED, FOR BURGLARY

Scribbling "I won't steal no more if you let me go to Oregon to work in lumber camp," Philip Breeze, 18-year-old mute from Park Rapids, Minn., protested he only took James Clawson's hat and watch chain when he was arraigned before Judge John A. Shidder on a burglary charge last Saturday morning.

He was accused of taking food and Clawson's overcoat in addition to the hat and jewelry and police said the deaf-and-dumb youth was nabbed as he was climbing out a window of the Clawson home near Carson st. and Madrid ave. All instructions, questions and comment about his case had to be written out for Breeze.

When it became evident that formal prosecution of the rugged Minnesota youth would involve a considerable amount of writing—he wrote he could not read lips and was not very familiar with "finger-language"—Police Chief John Stroh moved that the burglary charge be reduced to vagrancy. This was allowed by the court and Breeze was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail.

L. A. Junkman Held For "Salvaging" Ex-Jap Residence

Nabbed while allegedly "salvaging" the metal contents of a residence formerly occupied by Japanese, Clarence A. Thomas, 42, was held yesterday in the city jail on a petty theft charge. He was released on bail to appear for trial tomorrow (Friday) morning.

Officers said Thomas, a junkman, was arrested Tuesday night while he was loading assorted pipe, tin buckets, sprinkler attachments, a tire and sundry household articles into a truck. Police said the Thomas case was one in a series of such incidents here within the past two weeks.
